Announcement on the joint acquisition of USA Zama Inc.

SIIX Corporation (“SIIX”) today announced that its Board of Directors Meeting has resolved to acquire 100% of issued share of USA Zama Inc., Delaware corporation, jointly with IIDA DENKI KOGYO CO., LTD., Tokyo, Japan (“IIDA”).

1. Purchase of acquisition

USA Zama Inc. designs and wholesales Zama brand carburetors for small engines, which holds major share in the US market. Their products are distributed to world's leading outdoor power tool manufacturers. IIDA, headquartered in Tokyo, is one of the established suppliers to such worldwide engine manufacturers. They provide leading engine ignition systems for small engines used in a variety of outdoor applications including chainsaws, lawn mowers, generators, etc. SIIX has longstanding business relationship with IIDA since 1979. It has been supplying them various services including procurement of electronic components and EMS manufacturing for their offshore production.

Both carburetor and ignition system are key components of small engine. Through the joint acquisition of USA Zama with IIDA, SIIX intends to strengthen competitiveness and enlarge the market in the field of small engine components. SIIX also believes that the acquisition will contribute to boost its core business including procurement, logistic and EMS.
